

STUDENT VOLUNTEER SIGN UP

The Fishers Chamber Players is a non-profit, professional music ensemble based in Fishers, Indiana. We perform five concerts per season. Volunteer opportunities include clerical work, concert set-up and tear-down, and child care. Students who volunteer will do something meaningful for their community, while receiving credit toward graduation for volunteering. Students may also receive references for job opportunities and college applications. Volunteer needs are ongoing throughout the school year and summer.

Volunteering for Fishers Chamber Players, especially for concerts, is a great responsibility. Failure to show up will not only result in the withdrawal of further opportunities, but could also seriously affect the operations of a public concert. If you are contacted and agree to volunteer, please sign below to signify that you will dress appropriately as directed by the Executive Director, arrive on time, and complete all responsibilities in a courteous and professional manner.
